

Parkinson's UK Edinburgh Branch Seminar on Medication

Wednesday 22 February 2012

South Wing, Eric Liddell Centre, Morningside
Bus routes 11, 15, 16, 23, 45

Overview of medicines used to treat Parkinson's Disease including historical progress and side effects profiles. Supported by Alison Stewart (Senior Parkinson's Nurse, Royal Victoria Hospital) and Alison Thomson (Senior Clinical Pharmacist, Neurosciences, Western General Hospital).

"Is it time for your medication, or mine?"

This is to be an informal talk with responses from the audience.
Programme; coffee at 11.00am, Speakers 11.30 -1.00pm
Sandwich lunch 1.00-1.45pm Q and A session, 3.30pm finish.

Suggestions for topics and queries to be submitted to the people listed below by 5 February 2012; these can be anonymous if preferred.

To assist with catering arrangements, please advise if you are intending to join us. Contact any of those below with topics, queries and attendance numbers.

Marian McIntyre 8 Eildon Street EH3 5JU 0131 556 6595
marian.mcintyre@gmail.com

Leo Hislop 5 Chamberlain Road EH10 4DL 0131 229 6157
leohislop@talktalk.com

Liz McBain 119 Craigleith Hill Avenue EH4 2NB 0131 315 2493
w.mcibain@blueyonder.co.uk