

Review of WPC 2016

Edinburgh Branch, Parkinson's UK

Participate in our Parkinson's Community

Suggestions by Alison Williams
And Ken Bowler

Join ERIG (Edinburgh Research Interest Group)

www.edinburghparkinsons.org/research-interest-group/

Join RSN (Parkinson's UK Research Support Network)

<https://www.parkinsons.org.uk/content/get-involved-parkinsons-research>

Visit the ParkyRSN website, built by volunteers to support the RSN

www.parkyrsn.org.uk/

Volunteer for clinical trials & research projects

PWPs and healthy controls needed.

www.parkinsons.org.uk/content/get-involved-parkinsons-research

foxtrialfinder.michaeljfox.org/

Talk to medical students: Edinburgh University

Contact Judith Sim, Course Organiser of the Health, Illness and Society course, Biomedical Teaching Organisation, University of Edinburgh jsim1@staffmail.ed.ac.uk or Nicole Porter, Course Administrator on 0131 651 1515.

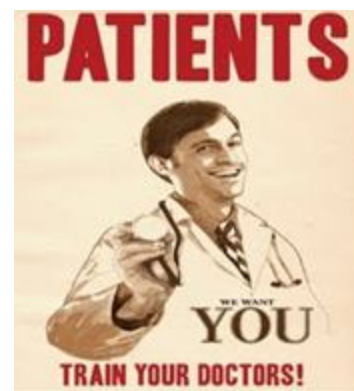

Edinburgh Patient Partnership Programme (EPPSAT)

Become a patient partner.

www.eemec.med.ed.ac.uk/pages/edinburgh-patient-partnership-eppsat

watch the video

www.youtube.com/watch?v=IToDOqQ0h2o&featur

Get involved in NHS Patient & Public Participation Activities

www.scottishhealthcouncil.org

Talk to physiotherapy students: Queen Margaret University

Contact Dr Gillian Baer, Lead in Neurological Physiotherapy Gbaer@qmu.ac.uk or Dr Jane Hislop, Programme Leader MSc Pre reg Physiotherapy Jhislop@qmu.ac.uk

Engage with members of the public

Help in running courses, in facilitating groups, at activities and events

Become a volunteer for the P-UK Edinburgh Branch

Outreach to minorities and isolated PWPs

and so on