

Paul Mayhew-Archer Incurable Optimist: Pre-Show Gathering

Paul Mayhew-Archer is returning to Edinburgh, with his sell-out show “The Incurable Optimist” being staged at Assembly Roxy, 2 Roxburgh Place, EH8 9SU, on 27th March 2019 at 7.45pm.

The Parkinson’s UK Edinburgh Branch is collaborating with the Fife Branch to host a gathering for members of Parkinson’s UK Local Groups attending the show, to meet for an hour or so in the bar area before the performance. Doors will open for us at 6pm then open to the general public at 7.15pm.

This social event will provide an opportunity for people from different Local Groups to meet whether for the first time, or to reconnect with people not seen for some time and share in our commonality.

PAUL MAYHEW-ARCHER:
INCURABLE OPTIMIST

19:45, 27 MAR

As we will be providing complementary nibbles, we ask that you book via Eventbrite for this pre-show gathering. Drinks including tea/coffee can be purchased from the bar.

To book tickets for Paul’s show, go to www.assemblyfestival.com and type Paul Mayhew-Archer in the search box. Roxy have kindly offered us a discount which will be applied by entering the code PAULFRIEND (in caps) after selecting a full price ticket.

Edinburgh Branch Parkinson’s UK www.edinburghparkinsons.org